General Order No. 56

ORDER

Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, Rule 7007.1 require that any corporation that is a party to an adversary proceeding, other than the debtor or a governmental unit, shall file two copies of a statement that identifies any corporation, other than a governmental unit, that directly or indirectly owns 10% or more of any class of the corporation's equity interests, or states that there are no entities to report under this subdivision.

The party shall file the statement required under Rule 7007.1 with its first pleading in an adversary proceeding. The party shall also file a supplemental statement promptly upon any change in circumstances that this rule requires the party to identify or disclose.

The above mentioned Rule further requires that membership interests in limited liability companies and similar entities that fall under the definition of a corporation in Bankruptcy Code § 101 also be included in the disclosure statement.

In addition to the requirements under Rule 7007.1, the court also directs all parties to address any corporate ownership issues as outlined in Rule 7007.1 at the scheduling conference held before this court.

Dated this 1st day of February, 2006.

Tom R. Cornish
United States Bankruptcy Judge
